
360 Safeguarding Policy

Keeping children safe, seen and secure.

Updated - January 2025

The purpose and scope of this policy statement:

To help breach the health wealth divide in children and young people and support families to raise their children to be healthy, happy and successful. Through the delivery of quality school holiday camps and enrichment days we aim to be accessible to all.

The purpose of this policy statement is:

- to protect children and young people who receive 360 Vision's services from harm.

This includes the children of adults who use our services

- to provide staff and volunteers, as well as children and young people and their families, with the overarching principles that guide our approach to child protection.

This policy applies to anyone working on behalf of 360 Vision, including senior managers and the board of trustees, paid staff, volunteers, sessional workers, agency staff and students.

Legal framework

This policy has been drawn up on the basis of legislation, policy and guidance that seeks to protect children in England. A summary of the key legislation and guidance is available from nspcc.org.uk/childprotection.

Also through the following legislation and guidance:

- The Children Act 1989 specifically Section 17 – provision of services for children in need – and Section 47 – local authority duty to investigate
- Section 16, Sexual Offences Act 2003
- The Children Act 2004 – creation of Local Safeguarding Children Boards, Working Together and information sharing
- The Equality Act 2010
- What to do if you're worried a child is being abused 2015
- Working Together to Safeguard Children 2023
- Keeping Children Safe in Education, 2024 (KCSIE, 2024)
- The Data Protection Act, 2018
- The UK General Data Protection Regulations
- Child Protection in Sport Unit (CPSU) standards for safeguarding and protecting children in sport

We recognise that:

- the welfare of children is paramount in all the work we do and in all the decisions we take
- working in partnership with children, young people, their parents, carers and other agencies is essential in promoting young people's welfare
- all children, regardless of age, disability, gender reassignment, race, religion or belief, sex, or sexual orientation have an equal right to protection from all types of harm or abuse
- some children are additionally vulnerable because of the impact of previous experiences, their level of dependency, communication needs or other issues
- extra safeguards may be needed to keep children who are additionally vulnerable safe from abuse.

We will seek to keep children and young people safe by:

- valuing, listening to and respecting them
- appointing a nominated child protection lead for children and young people, a deputy and a lead trustee/board member for safeguarding
- adopting child protection and safeguarding best practice through our policies, procedures and code of conduct for staff and volunteers
- developing and implementing an effective online safety policy and related procedures
- providing effective management for staff and volunteers through supervision, support, training and quality assurance measures so that all staff and volunteers know about and follow our policies, procedures and behaviour codes confidently and competently
- recruiting and selecting staff and volunteers safely, ensuring all necessary checks are made
- recording and storing and using information professionally and securely, in line with data protection legislation and guidance [more information about this is available from the Information Commissioner's Office: ico.org.uk/for-organisations]
- sharing information about safeguarding and good practice with children and their families via leaflets, posters, group work and one-to-one discussions
- making sure that children, young people and their families know where to go for help if they have a concern
- using our safeguarding and child protection procedures to share concerns and relevant information with agencies who need to know, and involving children, young people, parents, families and carers appropriately
- using our procedures to manage any allegations against staff and volunteers appropriately
- creating and maintaining an anti-bullying environment and ensuring that we have a policy and procedure to help us deal effectively with any bullying that does arise
- ensuring that we have effective complaints and whistleblowing measures in place
- ensuring that we provide a safe physical environment for our children, young people, staff and volunteers, by applying health and safety measures in accordance with the law and regulatory guidance
- building a safeguarding culture where staff and volunteers, children, young people and their families, treat each other with respect and are comfortable about sharing concerns.
